To obtain further information on your results or your study progress you may either contact the lecturers or their assistants for feedback or visit your faculty's Monitoring Service.

CALCULATION OF TOTAL SCORES

The total score of a completed deliberation set consists of the weighted average of the local grades, in addition to which the ECTS credits are used as weights.

The calculation method of the grade of merit is defined by the Faculty Board (www.ugent.be/nl/onderwijs/administratie/regelgeving/aanvullendreglement.htm)

INTERNAL APPEAL

If you deem that an exam decision is detrimental to your interests due to a violation of your rights or if your re-enrolment is refused or your enrolment is subject to a binding condition, you may file an appeal against this decision – at the latest on the seventh day after the announcement of the exam results or after the notification of the decision in case of a refusal or binding condition – by means of a signed and dated petition that is sent to the Vice-Chancellor (Sint-Pietersnieuwstraat 25, 9000 Gent) by registered and signed post, as specified under article 100 of the Education and Examination Code (www.ugent.be/oer). Please also send the appeal to ombuds@ugent.be
